

Deloitte Facilitator Excellence | DFX

Practice #3 – Co-facilitation

Using Visual Aids

USING VISUAL AIDS

Overview of the practice session

- You and your co-facilitator will have 20 minutes to facilitate this practice session in a small group setting.
- Post facilitation, your DFX facilitator will lead a short developmental feedback session.
- You and your co-facilitator will have 35 minutes to prepare.
- When facilitating this topic, consider how to :
 - Incorporate what you have learned at DFX so far
 - Consider your previous feedback and how to ‘up your game’
 - Include components of the full learning cycle: Experience, Reflect, Conceptualize, and Experiment

Your session

Your task is to co-facilitate the 20-minute session based on the source material provided and the ideas below. As you prepare, think about how you might modify the materials and activities to match your personal facilitation style and approach. For example, consider how you might more naturally state the specific statements listed under the various “SAY” segments of this guide. A short PPT deck has also been provided for optional use.

Session Preparation

- Prepare the following flip charts:
 - Session Objectives (see below)
 - Blank chart with the heading, “Purpose of Visual Aids”
 - Blank chart with the heading, “Types of Visual Aids”
 - Blank chart with the heading “PowerPoint”
 - Blank chart with the heading “Flip Charts”
- Have post-it notes and markers available for each participant

Topic	Timing	Instructions and talking points
Welcome and introduction	1 minute	SAY: • Welcome the participants to this session on “Using Visual Aids.” DO: • Briefly introduce yourselves.
DFX facilitation model	1 minute	Refer to the DFX Model • Visual aids are tools facilitators use to link a concept to a visual image. As part of the Lead component of the Facilitator Ring in the DFX Model, facilitators are responsible for effectively employing visual aids and instructional media to support adult learning.

Topic	Timing	Instructions and talking points
Objectives and agenda	1 minute	Review the session objectives and agenda on the flip chart. • Objectives: ○ Explain the value of using visual aids in the classroom ○ List common types of visual aids ○ Apply tips and strategies for using visual aids • Agenda: ○ Welcome and overview ○ Objectives and Agenda ○ Purpose of Visual Aids ○ Types of Visual Aids ○ Activity: Visual Aids Best Practices ○ Discussion ○ Debrief & Wrap-Up
Purpose of Visual Aids	2 minutes	ASK: What is the purpose of visual aids? Record answers on the “Purpose of Visual Aids” flip chart. Ensure the following points are covered: ○ Grab an audience’s attention—and keep it ○ Make complex ideas easier to understand ○ Build emotional bridges with the audience ○ Help audiences retain information ○ Keep your speech on track ○ Provides variety/change of pace ○ Provides a record of a group discussion ○ Provides Reference material for later use ○ Appeals to a variety of senses and learning styles SAY: • The purpose of visual aids is to engage the audience, boost their understanding of your content, ignite an emotional response, and help you convey important messaging—but it is never a substitute for preparation.

Topic	Timing	Instructions and talking points
		A picture is worth a thousand words—it's cliché but it's true.
Types of Visual Aids	4 minutes	DO: Using Post-it notes, ask each group member to reflect on their experience as a learner and identify at least three types of visual aids they've encountered in a session, as well as in our program so far. They should capture one type per sticky note. Ensure they're considering not only the medium used to deliver a visual aid, but also the type of content in use. Have them place their Post-its on the “Types of Visual Aids” flip chart. Briefly review their responses and add any that are missing. Refer to the appendix for a full list. SAY: We are now going to do an activity focused on two of the most common types of visual aid used: PowerPoint and flip charts.
Activity: Visual Aids Best Practices	7 Minutes	DO: - Divide participants into two groups - Assign one group the “PowerPoint” flip chart and one group the “Flip Charts” flip chart. Encourage them to stand to complete this activity. - Ask each group to come up with a set of guidelines and leading practices for: - When it's best to use this type of visual aid - Leading practices when using this type of visual aid (think what to do and what not to do) - Allow groups 3-4 minutes to complete their task. - When time is up, ask them to take 2 additional minutes to record potential pitfalls/drawbacks of their assigned visual aid.

Topic	Timing	Instructions and talking points
Discussion	3 minutes	DO:

		Bring the group back together and ask each team to share their guidelines. Ask each group if they have anything else to add to the other group's list of best practices and pitfalls.
Debrief & Wrap Up	1 minute	DO: Debrief by asking the participants to reflect and share their most important takeaway from this session and how they will apply this moving forward. Revisit the COMB. Thank everyone for their attention and participation.

APPENDIX – Additional Information on Visual Aids

Visual aid type	Typical uses
Icon, graphic	• Reinforce key points • Organize content • Provide a mnemonic
Illustration, diagram, visual map	• Represent complex ideas • Explain a process • Show components, relationships, or patterns
Graph, chart, table	• Compare and contrast data or concepts • Summarize information
Photograph, GIF, JPEG	• Contextualize • Make content relatable
Screen capture	• Show examples from software or online content
Prop, model	• Allow hands-on interaction (think of the safety demonstration on an airplane) • Some examples: juggling balls – demonstrating juggling tasks and priorities; old-style mobile phone – demonstrating pace change; Conductor's baton – demonstrating power of coordinating, managing timing, and turn up the volume or tempo.
Blank flipchart, whiteboard/huddle board	• Summarize, simplify, and focus ideas • Reinforce key points • Capture the output of discussions and brainstorming • Provide a means for the facilitator to create visual aids
Pre-printed flipchart, poster, wallchart	• Highlight key concepts • Add visual interest to the classroom environment • Supply visual aids for the facilitator to reference and annotate
Handout	• Reinforce and/or build on concepts covered by the facilitator • Support classroom activities (e.g., by providing instructions or background) • Provide a takeaway for the participants to reference on the job
PowerPoint	• Summarize key points • Help the facilitator to stay on track and drive the conversation forward • Supply visual aids for the facilitator to reference

Video/Video Clip	• Show dynamics, interactions, and movement • Demonstrate behaviors and techniques • Increase the level of classroom energy and participant engagement
Polling/voting software	• Test understanding or retention • Generate discussion

Deloitte refers to one or more of Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu Limited (“DTTL”), its global network of member firms, and their related entities (collectively, the “Deloitte organization”). DTTL (also referred to as “Deloitte Global”) and each of its member firms and related entities are legally separate and independent entities, which cannot obligate or bind each other in respect of third parties. DTTL and each DTTL member firm and related entity is liable only for its own acts and omissions, and not those of each other. DTTL does not provide services to clients. Please see www.deloitte.com/about to learn more.

This communication and any attachment to it is for internal distribution among personnel of Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu Limited (“DTTL”), its global network of member firms and their related entities (collectively, the “Deloitte organization”). It may contain confidential information and is intended solely for the use of the individual or entity to whom it is addressed. If you are not the intended recipient, please notify us immediately by replying to this email and then please delete this communication and all copies of it on your system. Please do not use this communication in any way.

None of DTTL, its member firms, related entities, employees or agents shall be responsible for any loss or damage whatsoever arising directly or indirectly in connection with any person relying on this communication. DTTL and each of its member firms, and their related entities, are legally separate and independent entities.